The Lam Family College of Business offers three programs at the graduate level: Master of Business Administration (MBA), Master of Science in Accountancy (MSA), and Master of Science in Business Analytics (MSBA).

General Guidelines for Graduate Programs
All students planning to complete a master’s degree in business must complete all requirements, including professional development workshops, the program prerequisite classes, and the advanced required courses.

Registration in graduate courses in business (700-899) is limited to graduate business students or students in a graduate business certificate program. SF State Graduate students in other majors may enroll on a space-available basis with the consent of the Faculty Director of Graduate Business Programs.

Registration in graduate business Culminating Experience courses is limited to classified graduate business students.

Grading Policy
Program prerequisite and advanced requirement courses must be taken on the basis of letter A, B, C, D, F grading. At the instructor’s discretion, pluses and minuses may be used. CR/NC grading is not allowed. The minimum grade for advanced required courses is a C.

Culminating Experience requirements must be completed with a B- or better grade.

Grade Deficiency
A graduate business student whose coursework drops below a 3.0-grade point average will be notified that s/he has been placed on academic probation. If the grade point deficiency is not made up, the student may be disqualified effective the beginning of the semester following the first probationary semester. In such situations, the student will not be allowed to enroll in graduate-level business courses at the program prerequisite and advanced requirement level.

Any student who becomes disqualified under the above provisions and wishes to appeal such disqualification must file a formal appeal within ten days of the date of the notice of disqualification. Such appeal must be filed with the Faculty Director of Graduate Business Programs.

The specified course requirements and stipulated conditions for the graduate business programs may not be changed, substituted for, or altered in any way. Exceptions to this rule must be requested, in writing, before the coursework is attempted and must be approved by the Faculty Director of Graduate Business Programs.

Master of Business Administration
The M.B.A. program is designed as a balanced preparation for managerial careers in business. Its purpose is to prepare students for responsible positions in a rapidly changing world; to develop an attitude of intellectual curiosity; to foster an interest in continuous learning throughout life; and to apply business skills to all types of endeavors.

Accreditation
The M.B.A. program is accredited by the most respected business accrediting association in the world, the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB). San Francisco State University is also accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC). This ensures continuous improvement of faculty in teaching, research, and professional service.

Admission
U.S. citizens, permanent residents, and international students may apply for fall or spring admissions according to the following schedule:

- Fall semester filing period: October 1 through May 1.
- Spring semester filing period: August 1 through October 1.

There are three rounds of application deadlines in the Fall semester filing period (for the Spring semester filing period, there is only one). The above dates are subject to change. Check the Graduate Business Program’s website for the latest dates.

Application Process
Each applicant to the M.B.A. program must submit the following documents:

- California State University Application (https://www2.calstate.edu/apply/) for Graduate or International Admission plus an application fee of $70
- One official transcript from every college or university attended
- The score on the GMAT (Graduate Management Admissions Test) or GRE (Graduate Record Examination). The deadline to take the GMAT

   a. Exhibit leadership when appropriate.
   b. Demonstrate the ability to work effectively in teams.
   c. Understand the perspective of others and treat them in a culturally appropriate and respectful manner.

5. Communication skills – Each student will demonstrate effective oral and written communication skills. In particular, each student will be able to:
   a. Create and deliver effective business presentations to diverse audiences.
   b. Organize and write professional documents appropriate for the audience.

Program Requirements

Orientation and Professional Development Workshops

Admitted students are expected to attend the required orientation prior to the start of their first semester. The Graduate Business Programs orientation helps students prepare for the academic program and also includes professional development workshops.

Prerequisite Courses

Prerequisite courses offer students, without a recent Business undergraduate degree, the opportunity to learn or refresh knowledge in the basic elements of business. Depending upon a student's previous academic background, the prerequisite courses may range from 0 to 24 units. The program requirements are met by taking the eight business prerequisite courses below or by waivers of individual courses based on previous equivalent coursework.

Students who have earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration within the past seven years from an Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB)-accredited university, with a 3.0 GPA or better in the last 60 semester units or 90 quarter units of coursework, are eligible to waive all M.B.A. program prerequisite courses. An up-to-date listing of AACSB schools around the world can be found on the AACSB International website (http://www.aacsb.edu/). Students who have taken and completed coursework equivalent to any of the prerequisite courses at other institutions within the last five to seven years may be able to waive individual prerequisite courses. Each equivalency is determined by course content, grade received, and the amount of time elapsed since the course was completed.

For students who completed their undergraduate degree in Business over seven years ago, the program prerequisite courses offer an opportunity to refresh their knowledge and catch up on advances that have taken place in the different disciplines.
