MINOR IN HOSPITALITY AND TOURISM MANAGEMENT

Hospitality and Tourism Management Minor – 24 units

The Hospitality and Tourism Management minor is designed to provide undergraduates with a focused exposure to hospitality management. The program can provide non-hospitality management majors with the professional and technical skills in hospitality management needed for entry into employment or serve as an alternative to a double major for business majors wishing expertise in a second field.

All coursework used to satisfy the requirements of the minor must be completed with a minimum grade point average of 2.0.
