Bachelor of Arts in American Indian Studies – SJS Associate Degree for Transfer Roadmap

This is a sample pathway for students who transfer to San Francisco State University in the current Bulletin year with an AA-T in Social Justice Studies. All lower division GE requirements have been satisfied. Additional units in the major may have been satisfied. Check with a major advisor about the most appropriate course sequence. Degree completion guaranteed in 60 units; see the Associate Degree for Transfer (ADT) section for more information.

To Do at SF State:

Enough total units to reach 120 minimum for graduation; 40 units minimum at the upper division level; to include the following:

University-wide Requirements: 6–9 units

- ENG 214 or equivalent A4 course if not taken before transfer (0–3 units)
- American Institutions: Satisfied by courses required for the AIS core. See notes.
- University Graduation Writing Assessment Requirement/GWAR (3 units): ETHS 300GW
- Upper division GE: Take 3 units to satisfy UD-B. Courses approved for UD-C and UD-D satisfy major requirements.
- Students entering the major with the AA-T in Social Justice Studies are not required to fulfill SF State Studies requirements.
- Complementary Studies: consult with a department advisor on how transfer units and/or SF State units can be applied to ensure degree completion within 60 units.

American Indian Studies Major: 39 units

- Core (21 units)
- Electives (18 units): Electives are organized into four areas of emphasis: California Indian Studies; Creative Arts and the Humanities; Law, Politics, and Society; Science, Health and Environmental Studies. Students may select Electives from a single emphasis, or from all four emphases. Consult with a department advisor.

University Electives: 12 or More Units

Units depending on course choices made at the community college, how transferred units are applied to the requirements above, and course choices at SF State. Some courses may meet more than one requirement, e.g., in both UD GE and the major.
