MINOR IN RACE AND RESISTANCE STUDIES

Race and Resistance Studies, Minor – 19 - 21 units

The minor consists of 19 to 21 credits of undergraduate study.

- Only one third of the credits or no more than approximately two courses can be taken credit/no credit for the minor.
- Students must have maintained at least a 2.0 grade point average in minor courses.
- At least half of all courses towards the minor degree must be upper division at the 300 level or above.

Consistent with current University policy, courses for meeting the requirements of this minor may, as appropriate, be used simultaneously for meeting general education or credential requirements. Written declaration of the pursuit of the minor is not necessary prior to enrollment in any of its required or elective courses. Students should try to complete ETHS 100 or ETHS 110 before taking any further courses in the minor. These courses, however, may be taken concurrently. Additional courses may count towards the minor upon consultation with the Race and Resistance Studies undergraduate minor advisor.

All course work used to satisfy the requirements of the minor must be completed with a minimum grade point average of 2.0.
