

CERTIFICATE IN HISTORICAL RESEARCH (HONORS)

Prerequisites

For admission to the Certificate in Historical Research (Honors), students must meet the following requirements:

- An overall GPA of 3.25
- at least 60 units completed, and
- acceptance of a thesis proposal by a faculty member in the History department.

Program Learning Outcomes

1. Students will apply research methodologies to the analysis of primary source evidence to make compelling, original arguments about the past, situating their conclusions within the debates among historians. (Research Skills)
2. Students will organize evidence, communicate complex information, tell engaging stories, and persuade their audience in a full-length thesis that communicates original research. (Communication Skills)
3. Students will apply knowledge and understanding gained within disciplinary studies in History and, in many cases, allied disciplines within frameworks that mobilize concepts, ethics, methods, and theory relevant to the study of the past. (Understanding)
