The Center for Global Engagement (CGE) provides international students and professional groups enrolled in programs offered through the College of Professional & Global Education (CPaGE) unparalleled access to pursue rigorous academic education, cutting-edge professional development, and enriching cultural exploration at an American university. CGE provides admission, advising, and support services to international students in the non-degree programs listed below. These programs are offered in collaboration with colleges and departments across the campus.

- American Language Institute (<http://bulletin.sfsu.edu/colleges/extended-learning/american-language-institute/>)
- University Pathway Program (<http://bulletin.sfsu.edu/colleges/extended-learning/university-pathway/#text>)
- Hospitality and Tourism Management Certificate (<http://bulletin.sfsu.edu/colleges/extended-learning/hospitality-management/>)
- International Business Certificate (<http://bulletin.sfsu.edu/colleges/extended-learning/international-business/>)
- Liberal and Creative Arts Certificate (<http://bulletin.sfsu.edu/colleges/extended-learning/ct-liberal-creative-arts/>)
- Business Administration Certificate (<http://bulletin.sfsu.edu/colleges/extended-learning/certificate-pre-master-business-administration-foundations/>)
- Non-degree academic credit and non-credit programs
- International custom training programs

In addition to administering language, experiential, academic, and professional programs, CGE provides students with academic advising and a variety of services, including comprehensive orientation programming, cultural adjustment support, immigration advising, and a regular program of social and cultural activities. Many CGE programs serve as a pathway to an undergraduate or graduate degree program.
