

MINOR IN HUMANITIES

The Humanities minor is an interdisciplinary program dedicated to the study of arts and ideas in their cultural contexts.

Program Learning Outcomes

- a. Place an expressive work in its cultural context through close reading of its formal details.
- b. Articulate differences, similarities, and relationships represented by cultural works across geographical region, historical moment, or expressive form.

Humanities Minor – 15 units

- All coursework used to satisfy the requirements of the minor must be completed with a minimum grade point average of 2.0.
- Humanities minors cannot choose CR/NC grading in more than one course in their minor.
- At least 12 units must be upper-division (300 and above), and at least 6 units taken at SF State.

Core (6 units)

Code	Title	Units
HUM 303	Remembering our Past: Memory, Tradition, History	3
Select One:		3
HUM 415	Thinking the Present: Comparative Arts and Culture
HUM 500	Imagining New Futures: Capitalism, Climate, Technology

Electives (9 units)

Students may select any HUM-prefix courses not already taken for the Core. At least 6 units must be upper-division.