STUDENT CONDUCT

TITLE 5, CALIFORNIA CODE OF REGULATIONS, § 41301. STANDARDS FOR STUDENT CONDUCT

a. Campus Community Values
The university is committed to maintaining a safe and healthy living and learning environment for students, faculty, and staff. Each member of the campus community should choose behaviors that contribute toward this end. Students are expected to be good citizens and to engage in responsible behaviors that reflect well upon their university, to be civil to one another and others in the campus community, and contribute positively to student and university life.

b. Grounds for Student Discipline Student behavior that is not consistent with the Student Conduct Code is addressed through an educational process that is designed to promote safety and good citizenship and, when necessary, impose appropriate consequences. The following are the grounds upon which student discipline can be based:

i. Dishonesty, including:
   1. Cheating, plagiarism, or other forms of academic dishonesty that are intended to gain unfair academic advantage.
   2. Furnishing false information to a university official, faculty member, or campus office.
   3. Forging, alteration, or misuse of a university document, key, or identification instrument.
   4. Misrepresenting one’s self to be an authorized agent of the university or one of its auxiliaries.

ii. Unauthorized entry into, presence in, use of, or misuse of university property.

iii. Willful, material and substantial disruption or obstruction of a University-related activity, or any on-campus activity.

iv. Participating in an activity that substantially and materially disrupts the normal operations of the university, or infringes on the rights of members of the university community.

v. Willful, material and substantial obstruction of the free flow of pedestrian or other traffic, on or leading to campus property or off-campus university-related activity.

vi. Disorderly, lewd, indecent, or obscene behavior at a University related activity or directed toward a member of the university community.

vii. Conduct that threatens or endangers the health or safety of any person within or related to the university community, including physical abuse, threats, intimidation, harassment, or sexual misconduct.

viii. Hazing or conspiracy to haze. Hazing is defined as any method of initiation or pre-initiation into a student organization or student body, whether or not the organization or body is officially recognized by an educational institution, which is likely to cause serious bodily injury to any former, current, or prospective student of any school, community college, college, university or other educational institution in this state (Penal Code 245.6), and in addition, any act likely to cause physical harm, personal degradation or disgrace resulting in physical or mental harm, to any former, current, or prospective student of any school, community college, college, university or other educational institution. The term “hazing” does not include customary athletic events or school-sanctioned events. Neither the express or implied consent of a victim of hazing, nor the lack of active participation in a particular hazing incident is a defense. Apathy or acquiescence in the presence of hazing is not a neutral act and is also a violation of this section.

ix. Use, possession, manufacture, or distribution of illegal drugs or drug-related paraphernalia, except as expressly permitted by law and university regulations or the misuse of legal pharmaceutical drugs.

x. Use, possession, manufacturer, or distribution of alcoholic beverages (except as expressly permitted by law and university regulations), or public intoxication while on campus or off a university-related activity.

xi. Theft of property or services from the university community, or misappropriation of university resources.

xii. Unauthorized destruction or damage to university property or other property in the university community.

xiii. Possession or misuse of firearms or guns, replicas, ammunition, explosives, fireworks, knives, other weapons, or dangerous chemicals (without the prior authorization of the campus president) on campus or at a university-related activity.

xiv. Unauthorized recording, dissemination, or publication of academic presentations (including handwritten notes) for a commercial purpose.

xv. Misuse of computer facilities or resources, including:
   1. Unauthorized entry into a file, for any purpose.
   2. Unauthorized transfer of a file.
   3. Use of another’s identification or password.
   4. Use of computing facilities and resources to interfere with the work of another member of the university community.

   5. Use of computing facilities and resources to send obscene or intimidating and abusive messages.
   6. Use of computing facilities and resources to interfere with normal university operations.
   7. Use of computing facilities and resources in violation of copyright laws.
   8. Violation of a campus computer use policy.

xvi. Violation of any published university policy, rule, regulation or presidential order.

xvii. Failure to comply with directions or, or interference with, any university official or any public safety officer while acting in the performance of his/her duties.

xviii. Any act chargeable as a violation of a federal, state, or local law that poses a substantial threat to the safety or well-being of members of the university community, property within the university community or poses a significant threat of disruption or interference with university operations.

xix. Violation of the Student Conduct Procedures, including:
   1. Falsification distortion, or misrepresentation of information related to a student discipline matter.
   2. Disruption or interference with the orderly progress of a student discipline proceeding.
   3. Initiation of a student discipline proceeding in bad faith.
   4. Attempting to discourage another from participating in the student discipline matter.
   5. Attempting to influence the impartiality of any participant in a student discipline matter.
SECTION XXIII
CIVIL AND CRIMINAL PENALTIES FOR VIOLATION OF FEDERAL COPYRIGHT LAWS

Anyone who is found to be liable for copyright infringement may be liable for either the owner's actual damages along with any profits of the infringer or statutory damages of up to $30,000 per work infringed. In the case of a willful infringement, a court may award up to $150,000 per work infringed. (See 17 U.S.C. §504.) Courts also have discretion to award costs and attorneys' fees to the prevailing party. (See 17 U.S.C. §505.) Willful copyright infringement can also result in criminal penalties, including imprisonment and fines. (See 17 U.S.C. §506 and 18 U.S.C.§2319.)

SECTION XXIV
CANCELLATION OF REGISTRATION OR WITHDRAWAL FROM THE INSTITUTION

Students who find it necessary to cancel their registration or to withdraw from all classes after enrolling for any academic term are required to follow the University's official withdrawal procedures. Failure to follow formal University procedures may result in an obligation to pay fees as well as the assignment of failing grades in all courses and the need to apply for readmission before being permitted to enroll in another academic term. Students who withdraw during the first three weeks of instruction are not considered enrolled for the current semester. Students who do not enroll for two consecutive semesters (excluding summer) must apply for readmission to the University. Information on canceling registration and withdrawal procedures is available from the Registrar's Office, in person, or on the Registrar's Office website (http://registrar.sfsu.edu/).

Students who receive financial aid funds must consult with the Office of Student Financial Aid prior to withdrawing from the University regarding any required return or repayment of grant or loan assistance received for that academic term or payment period. Students who have received financial aid and withdraw from the institution during the academic term or payment period may need to return or repay some or all of the funds received, which may result in a debt owed to the institution.

SECTION XXV
CREDIT HOUR

As of July 1, 2011, federal law (Title 34, Code of Federal Regulations, sections 600.2 and 600.4) requires all accredited institutions to comply with the federal definition of the credit hour. For all CSU degree programs and courses bearing academic credit, the "credit hour" is defined as "the amount of work represented in intended learning outcomes and as established by the institution, including laboratory work, internships, practica, studio work, and other academic work leading to the award of credit hours."

a. One hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and a minimum of two hours of out-of-class student work each week for approximately fifteen weeks for one semester or trimester hour of credit, or ten to twelve weeks for one quarter hour of credit, or the equivalent amount of work over a different amount of time; or
b. At least an equivalent amount of work as required in paragraph (1) of this definition for other academic activities as established by the institution, including laboratory work, internships, practica, studio work, and other academic work leading to the award of credit hours."
A credit hour is assumed to be a 50-minute period. In courses in which "seat time" does not apply, a credit hour may be measured by an equivalent amount of work, as demonstrated by student achievement.
