The Center for Global Engagement (CGE) provides international students and professional groups enrolled in programs offered through the College of Professional & Global Education (CPaGE) unparalleled access to pursue rigorous academic education, cutting-edge professional development, and enriching cultural exploration at an American university. CGE provides admission, advising, and support services to international students in the non-degree programs listed below. These programs are offered in collaboration with colleges and departments across the campus.

- American Language Institute (http://bulletin.sfu.edu/colleges/extended-learning/american-language-institute/)
- University Pathway Program (http://bulletin.sfu.edu/colleges/extended-learning/university-pathway/#text)
- Hospitality and Tourism Management Certificate (http://bulletin.sfu.edu/colleges/extended-learning/hospitality-management/)
- International Business Certificate (http://bulletin.sfu.edu/colleges/extended-learning/international-business/)
- Liberal and Creative Arts Certificate (http://bulletin.sfu.edu/colleges/extended-learning/ct-liberal-creative-arts/)
- Business Administration Certificate (http://bulletin.sfu.edu/colleges/extended-learning/certificate-pre-master-business-administration-foundations/)
- Non-degree academic credit and non-credit programs
- International custom training programs

In addition to administering language, experiential, academic, and professional programs, CGE provides students with academic advising and a variety of services, including comprehensive orientation programming, cultural adjustment support, immigration advising, and a regular program of social and cultural activities. Many CGE programs serve as a pathway to an undergraduate or graduate degree program.